SUMMARY

I recently completed my Bachelor's in Software Engineering from City University Peshawar, where I actively engaged in both academic pursuits and extra-curricular activities. I took Final Year Project named as Al-Khadim, a Servant Services Application. Additionally, I was an enthusiastic member of the Google Developer Student Club (GDSC) at my university, where I collaborated with like-minded peers, participated in competitions, and explored the latest trends in technology. Prior to my university journey, I completed my Higher Secondary Education (FSc) from Government College Peshawar, where I also have worked on various extra-curricular activities with the staff of the DC office during my college days and I completed my Secondary Education (Matric) from Peshawar Model School.

EXPERIENCE

I am a newcomer to the professional landscape with no prior work experience.
