SHIFA MEDICOS

I gained confidence through my personal experience and formal education in business and marketing in the last five years. I was not done with my college studies that changes in my circumstances pushed me for playing a leading role in family and business. My quick response to the unfolding family situation taught me how to be an effective communicator and dealmaker with different parties. I took independent decisions on our family businesses, adopted modern techniques to produce profitable yields from the agricultural farms and continued my education without a break.

These were not easy tasks for a 20+ year old man with no prior experience in business and practical life. It polished my personality, prepared me for playing a challenging role and opened my mind to new ideas. I believe that sky is the limit and if given the chance for testing my theory and practice, I am sure, I would prove myself as one of the dynamic and successful team player in the workplace.
